

Privacy Policy

Taconic Resources of Independence, Inc. and the Mid-Hudson Interpreter Service are committed to ensuring that your personal information is secure and your privacy is respected. In order to provide our services to you, certain information may be collected such as, but not limited to

- domain names of visitors to our Web site
- e-mail addresses of those who e-mail us or register with us
- information about how many visits each page receives
- information volunteered by you, such as survey information, registrations, or interpreter requests.

We collect this information in order to determine how to create the best experience for our visitors. By looking at usage patterns, we learn which areas need more content and which areas are not meeting the needs of our visitors. We may collect your email address for future mailing lists; however, you may opt out of future mailings by contacting us. Contact information provided for interpreter requests will not be used other than the purpose for which you provided it. We do not sell or trade our email lists. If you have further questions or concerns, please send an email to website@taconicresources.net.
