

2nd Annual TRI INCLUSION FESTIVAL 2023

In partnership with the National Park Service/Home of FDR Historic site

Taconic
Resources for Independence, Inc.
ADVOCACY INCLUSION INDEPENDENCE

JOIN US . . .

in celebrating disability pride and culture!
Our FREE event features an array of accessible, engaging, and fun activities on the grounds of the Home of FDR National Historic site.

Thursday, June 29

11 AM - 3 PM | Rain or Shine

Home of FDR
National Historic Site

4097 Albany Post Rd, Hyde Park, NY

Activities/Presentations

- Community Leaders Meet & Greet:
Sue Serino, Thomas Zurhellen
& Village of Tivoli Mayor, Joel Griffith
- Accessible yoga sessions with Susannah Grange,
owner of Hudson River Yoga
- Readings of children's graphic book, Jolene--the Disability Awareness Chicken by Karen Finnegan
- Musical entertainment by jazz musician/multireedist
Paul Rutkowski and accompanist Steve Lamartina
- Guided tours of the FDR site grounds
- Free National Park Access Passes available to attendees with disabilities

American Sign Language interpreters provided

On-site accessible transport available, upon request

845.452.3913 | www.taconicresources.org/tri-inclusion-festival-2023

